..... PETITIONER

AND

1. The Commissioner of Intermediate Education, Nampally, Hyderabad.
2. The Principal, Government Junior College, New Town, Anantapur.

.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a writ of Mandamus or any other appropriate writ or order or direction declaring the order passed by the second respondent in RcNo.11-P1/2003 dated 8-4-2003 as arbitrary, violative principles of natural justice and illegal.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.K.SURESHREDDY

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.1 and 2: GP FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

The Court made the following :

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.V.S.RAO

WRIT PETITION NO.6820 OF 2003

ORDER:

On an application made by the petitioner for conducting Industrial and Agricultural Exhibition, the first respondent by proceedings dated 05.03.2003 accorded permission to the second respondent to spare the play ground of the Government Junior College (Boys), New town, Anantapur, for such exhibition for a period from 25.04.2003 to 31.05.2003 subject to certain conditions. However, by impugned letter dated 08.04.2003, the second respondent informed the petitioner that as per the telephonic instructions of the Commissioner of Intermediate Education, permission was granted by earlier proceedings, is cancelled. In the writ petition filed assailing the letter of the second respondent dated 05.03.2003, this Court did not grant any interim order. Be that as it is, as initially permission was granted only till 31.05.2003, all questions raised in the writ petition have become academic and it is not possible at this point of time to pass any orders in favour of the petitioner.

The writ petition is therefore dismissed as infructuous.
